Apartment 9279MF Trans-en-Provence

Charming studio for sale in Trans-en-Provence. The apartment, fully renovated, is located on the first floor of a picturesque building with a total of four floors. This property, measuring 25 m², offers a bright living area, a shower room, and a separate toilet. The open kitchen ensures a friendly and practical space, and its city view will add a lively touch to your daily life. A closet is available on the landing, along with a room equipped with water supply and drainage that can be used as an office or bedroom. The home features individual electric heating as well as an individual electric hot water system. Double glazing guarantees unmatched comfort. A great opportunity for a profitable and long-term investment. Real estate in 83720 Trans-en-Provence offers several advantages for buyers looking for a studio apartment. Firstly, the location is ideal: the village is nestled in an exceptional natural setting, between the sea and mountains, enjoying a mild Mediterranean climate all year round. Additionally, the local real estate market is lively, with a wide range of quality properties that offer good value for money. Access to amenities is another plus: the village has all necessary services and shops while being close to major cities like Draguignan and Fréjus. The quality of life here is outstanding, with plenty of cultural and outdoor activities available. Buying a studio in Trans-en-Provence is a winning choice. Information about the risks associated with this property is available on the Copaciguc group's website.
