House Antibes

In the charming old town district of Antibes, a delightful 55m<sup>2</sup> house, attached on one side, with a superb southwest-facing exposure offering an unobstructed view, is waiting for its new tenants. The house, spread over 2 levels and in good interior condition, features a comfortable bedroom, a shower room, and a WC. The double-glazed windows ensure excellent sound and thermal insulation. A separate, fully equipped kitchen and a laundry room stand out among its advantages. The heating system is reversible air conditioning, and the hot water is provided by an electric installation. Attention fans of refined properties, this furnished rental will not leave you indifferent.
