House 8970-23 Le Vieux-Bourg

10 minutes from QUINTIN: Detached house from the 1950s, built in stone with a cellar and slate roof on a 1,344m² plot, offering 50m² of living space on the ground floor and an identical-sized upper floor. It can be converted into 3 bedrooms, a bathroom, and a toilet. Currently on the ground floor: you enter into a 14m² eat-in kitchen with a wood-burning stove, a living room, and a bedroom of the same size, both also featuring fireplaces. A hallway at the rear provides access to the upper floor and the basement. A toilet is located under the stairs. The basement has a dirt floor. Renovations are required: exterior woodwork, insulation, heating system, sanitary facilities... (estimates for woodwork and insulation available) This house, situated in a village with a great quality of life, faces east-west and offers real potential. Once renovated, it can comfortably accommodate a family with children. Energy rating: G Property tax: €60 per year Sewerage: main drainage system Price: €86,800, fees paid by the seller.
