Maison double 316 Gap

Gap Sud: EXCLUSIVELY, La Loge immobilière invites you to discover this opulent house from the 70s-80s with a total living area of approximately 260 m² and built on a magnificent flat and gracefully wooded plot of approximately 2400 m² with swimming pool and SPA. Composed of two independent dwellings with an internal staircase allowing them to communicate, you will discover on the ground floor a modular apartment in T3 or T5 with plenty of storage space, and the double garage! Upstairs a generous 7-room accommodation composed of a large living room with terraces, independent kitchen with pantry, two shower rooms, separate toilets and plenty of storage space. This generous and modular property will meet many expectations, whether you want to keep your elders close to you, or set up your professional activity as a childminder at your home, the creation of shared housing for seniors or a shared apartment for students, etc. You will have at your disposal a healthy and qualitative construction which will require some interior renovation and modernization work (electrical installation, heating system, joinery, kitchen, bathroom) however the location in the southern sector of the city with the bus at the foot of the house and this magnificent building plot are rare unalterable assets More information and virtual tour on request.
