House 4125TI Clairac

Discover this charming townhouse with great potential offering many possibilities! It features two separate entrances, making it possible to create a second dwelling (renovations needed, as the ground floor is damp: unheated + adjoining laundry room). Currently, the property is configured as a single residence divided as follows: On the first floor: a pleasant living room, a bathroom with toilet, and two bedrooms located on a split level. The second floor offers a space for an office/dressing room. On the ground floor, accessible either through an independent entrance or via the door of the first unit: a laundry room, two multipurpose rooms, and a renovated bathroom complete the layout.
