House 4074 Les Baux-de-Provence

Ideally located in Les Baux-de-Provence, in the heart of the Alpilles, this property enjoys a commanding position within an exceptional natural setting. Set on a plot of over one hectare, it offers a rare living environment, imbued with serenity and authentic Provençal charm. From the moment you pass through the gate, the charm takes hold: the estate is enhanced by magnificent Mediterranean trees such as olive trees, holm oaks, and pines, creating a natural backdrop that is iconic of Provence. The outdoor areas, designed for the art of living, include a swimming pool and a tennis court, inviting relaxation and leisure in complete privacy. One of the main assets of this residence lies in its absolute tranquility, made possible by a prime location, sheltered from any disturbances, while remaining close to the region's most emblematic sites. The house, spread over several levels, offers generous spaces, numerous living areas, and large openings to the outside. The large terraces, true living rooms in their own right in Provence, reveal stunning unobstructed views of the surrounding landscape. A characterful project, ideal for lovers of authentic Provence seeking peace, harmony, and a preserved natural environment. Complete file and visits available upon request.
