House 874 Sorède

Charming 110 m² villa, nestled in the pretty village of Sorède, with easy-care garden and lovely swimming pool. This beautiful property welcomes you with its bright and friendly living space: a spacious living room bathed in light, extended by a veranda converted into a dining room. Large picture windows open onto the sunny terrace that borders the swimming pool, ideal for lazy days by the water. The villa also boasts a functional kitchen with adjoining pantry. The sleeping area comprises three comfortable bedrooms and a bathroom, with the option of adding a second. Of the total 110 m², 73.55 m² are classified as main rooms. The conservatory and the bedroom from the converted garage are counted as secondary areas. Sold fully furnished, this is a property you can move into straight away. The house is available from the 1st of November 2025. The garden invites you to relax under magnificent trees offering pleasant shade. Two wooden sheds complete the property: one is used as a bicycle shed and storage space, while the other is already equipped with sanitary facilities and is ready for a future shower. Sorède is a charming village perched between the sublime relief of the Albères mountains and the Mediterranean beaches, offering an exceptional living environment. Just a stone's throw away, you can go hiking on steep paths, or drive one or two hours to the high Pyrenean peaks and their ski resorts. The beaches of the coast are just 10-15 minutes away by car. A few kilometres away, the Toulouse airports, from Perpignan, the TGV connects directly to Barcelona and Paris.
