Contemporary house 3854 Uzès

Just a stone's throw from Uzès, between lush green countryside and a picturesque village with all amenities within walking distance, in the middle of a magnificent, fully landscaped plot of almost 3,000 m², is this vast, single-storey architect-designed house, with its large heated saltwater swimming pool and spacious pool house. This real haven of peace would be perfect for a family who could make it either their main residence or a second home. It features a 55 m² living/dining room with fireplace, with large bay windows opening onto the garden and pool for a very successful inside/out effect. Then there is a fitted kitchen, a large pantry and three superb bedrooms, each with its own shower room or bathroom and independent access to the outside world. Finally, at the entrance to the property, you'll find a perfectly insulated 14 m² teak gypsy caravan, perfect for welcoming friends or family to an unusual and charming place. An office, a separate bio-climatic pergola and outbuildings add to the high quality features on offer in this rare property on the outskirts of Uzès.
