surprise you with its architectural gems. In each alley you can breathe art, tradition and history. The architectural beauty of this charming village is easily obscured by the suggestive natural landscape of the most unspoiled countryside of the Northern Marches. It is surrounded by three mountains as it is proudly found on the coat of arms. Monte Nerone is probably the least known, but boasts incredible scenery and unspoiled nature, interesting wildlife and is a paradise for winter and summer sports enthusiasts: skiing, hiking, paragliding and horseback riding. Two rivers flow through the city and provide relief from the heat for locals and tourists when summer hits. It is a 17th century building belonging to the Mochi family - as nobles of the ancient city of Cagli, passed into ownership by inheritance to the Luminati of Urbino and from them, by deed of purchase in 1975, to Salciccia Fernando - current owner. It is located in the municipality of Cagli (Pesaro and Urbino) at the foot of the Apennines between the Catria and Nerone mountains with their respective ski resorts. It offers a unique panoramic view in the region, including the famous castle of Frontone. It is reached by the Roman consular road Flaminia, 30 km from Gubbio, 35 km from Urbino, 50 km from Fano-mare, 230 km from Rome and 100 km from Rimini. The building in question has been completely renovated thanks to the installation of thick masonry with a new solid face-to-face facing in pink stone from local quarries, hand-tanned stone for stone. The horizontal and roof structures are made of concrete-cement with anti-seismic reinforced concrete cords. It is equipped with beautiful finishes with underfloor heating service, air conditioning, electrical systems, water and elevator up to standard. The floors are ceramic and wood. The exterior fixtures with double glazing are made of wood on the inside and aluminum on the outside, the exterior doors are armored.
