House 2426 Cagnes-sur-Mer

Located in Cagnes-sur-Mer on the Colle road, this charming stone house offers 232 m² of living space. Elegantly built on a private garden of 1354 m², sheltered from neighbors, it enjoys a Southeast-facing exposure. The main house, spread over two floors, is laid out as follows: an entrance hall with a small closet, a cozy living room featuring a fireplace and an open-plan kitchen, complemented by a large living area that includes a lounge and a billiard space, plus guest toilets. Upstairs, you will find 3 suites with adjoining full bathrooms and fitted storage areas. The basement of this residence houses a self-contained apartment for additional space. The garden not only includes a swimming pool but also a charming pavilion for your guests. To fully enjoy the climate, several terraces are arranged throughout the garden, offering shaded or sunny spots depending on the season. Additionally, a garage by the roadside is specifically reserved for your main car, while other vehicles have access to a parking area equipped with an electric charging station.
