Mas 642S Saint-Pierre-de-Mézoargues

At the gates of Avignon (and the TGV), a peaceful haven. This property combines Provençal authenticity with high-end features, offering tranquility, privacy, and plenty of space for everyone in an exceptional setting. Discover this beautiful fully renovated stone farmhouse, nestled in the heart of a preserved Provençal village, surrounded by orchards and abundant nature. This unique place blends authenticity, comfort, and spaciousness—perfect for living the Provence lifestyle or hosting family and friends. A characterful home, this property charms with its Provençal authenticity, where every detail reflects the region's appeal. Exposed stone walls, original fireplaces, solid wood beams, and vintage terracotta tiles create a warm and inviting atmosphere. Each room tells a story and invites you to enjoy a one-of-a-kind living environment that mixes rustic elegance with modern comfort for a truly Provençal experience. Designed for family life and leisure, the indoor and outdoor spaces encourage sharing and relaxation: Cozy stone living room with fireplace and library corner, equipped kitchen with a large table seating 15 guests, Game room, bar area ... With its 5 suites and dormitory, this property can comfortably accommodate up to 15 people. Each suite has been thoughtfully decorated to provide comfort, brightness, and Provençal charm, featuring private bathrooms and high-quality materials. Heated panoramic pool and pool house with summer kitchen, Jacuzzi overlooking the countryside, pétanque court, and inhabitants, the farmhouse is nestled among orchards and horticultural plains.

You enjoy both peace and proximity to the Alpilles, Saint-Rémy-de-Provence, and Avignon—perfect for balancing a tranquil lifestyle with regional vibrancy. Experience authentic Provence with sunshine, nature, and the sweet art of living. Whether for a family home, holiday house, or tourism project, this farmhouse is a rare opportunity combining charm, comfort, and profitability.
