Mansion 04072 Poussan

Dear potential buyer, we are delighted to offer you for purchase a superb character stone house dating from the 14th century, fully renovated in the heart of Poussan, close to the Thau basin. This generous 270m² residence extends over three levels, with a large garage on the ground floor that can accommodate several vehicles and a workshop that can be used for storage. On the first floor, discover a welcoming living space thanks to its large living room bathed in light and its fully equipped kitchen with pantry. On this same level, the sleeping area consists of a master suite with bathroom and fitted dressing room, as well as two other beautiful bedrooms with shared shower room and separate toilet. On the upper floor, a spacious second living room can be used as a TV lounge, cinema room, games room, or library. Continuing on, two bedrooms, each with their own bathroom and toilet. This top level also provides access to a magnificent rooftop terrace with no overlooked views, a summer kitchen, and a barbecue, perfect for enjoying the beautiful weather in complete privacy. In addition to this main residence, two brand new independent apartments have been fitted out. Both consist of a living room with a fitted kitchen, a bedroom with its own bathroom, and a separate toilet. These are ideal for seasonal rentals, for hosting relatives or for carrying out a liberal activity. This property complex combines character, volume and old-world charm
