House 884 Fontjoncouse

Large family villa with swimming pool and breathtaking views in Fontjoncouse. Perched atop a hill with no neighbours in sight, this villa offers approximately 235 m² of living space and enjoys unobstructed views of the Corbières region, set within over 12,000 m² of landscaped grounds. The house, perfectly suited to family life and entertaining friends, consists of three distinct sleeping areas, living spaces facing outwards and a garden that slopes down in terraces to the olive trees. The entrance hall, equipped with large cupboards, leads to three bedrooms created during the 2010 extension, a bright bathroom and separate toilets. A comfortable staircase leads to two further bedrooms. Extending from the hall, the kitchen-diner opens via large French windows onto the south-east facing terrace; a pantry and a second toilet complete this space. On the right, the 45 m² living-dining room is organised around a traditional fireplace; a mezzanine adds a warm touch. Three bay windows lead to the pergola, the dining terrace and the paved pool area, creating a fluid flow between indoors and outdoors. From the living room, a corridor leads to a third sleeping area consisting of an office (or small bedroom), two bedrooms, a shower room and a bathroom with WC. In the garden, pine trees, scrubland and terraced fields blend with relaxation areas around the 10m x 5m pool. Two charging points for electric cars allow you to simultaneously charge two vehicles. Nature lovers can enjoy beautiful walks on the nearby Corbières trails.
