The city of Aix en Provence: The city of Aix-en-Provence is known for being a historic and cultural city of great beauty. Aix-en-Provence has a long history dating back to Roman times. Founded in 122 BC by the Roman consul Sextius Calvinus, the city prospered through the centuries and was the seat of the archbishopric in the Middle Ages. Many historic buildings and monuments bear witness to this rich history, such as the Saint-Sauveur Cathedral, the town hall and the Archbishop's Palace, which you can visit during your vacation in this charming farmhouse. The city is renowned for its remarkable architectural heritage. The narrow streets of the city center are full of old houses, charming squares and elegant fountains. The most famous of these is the Rotonde fountain, located on the Place de la Rotonde, which has become one of the symbols of Aix. You will be its picturesque landscapes and exceptional night. You can also visit Cézanne's studio, which has become a museum dedicated to his work. Aix-en-Provence also offers many cultural activities throughout the year. The Lyric Art Festival, which takes place in summer, attracts artists and spectators from all over the world. The city streets fill with music, dance and opera during this time. Finally, the surrounding region offers magnificent Provençal landscapes, with lavender fields, vineyards and picturesque villages to explore during your stay in this seasonal rental. In short, Aix-en-Provence is a historic and cultural city, rich in heritage, natural beauty and artistic activities. Whether strolling through its streets, discovering its fascinating history or enjoying its festivals, Aix-en-Provence offers a memorable experience to all who visit it. Don't wait any longer to rent this holiday bastide and discover Provence.
