Ideally located between Aix-en-Provence and the South Luberon near the village of Puy Sainte Réparate, this very pleasant house is nestled on the heights: the view of the Alps and Luberon is superb. The spacious property combines traditional architecture and contemporary materials with taste and comfort. It offers five large bedrooms, a home cinema room and enjoys a beautiful Mediterranean garden, a summer dining room with a view, a swimming pool area sheltered from the sun, all facing the Luberon.
